NOTES

This is not intended to be a history of the Daniel McFarland family. The notes as set forth, are taken from family records in the Clara Machan Edwards' home in Decatur, Illinois, Clifford Corliss McFarland home in Omaha, Nebraska, and Helen M. McFarland home in Topeka, Kansas.

For the first I am indebted to John D. A. R. and Congressional libraries in Washington, D. C., for the records of the McFarland family, and reliable histories by Mrs. C. M. Little, Elvira Crane, Crampton, and Fern. Archives at Harrisburg, Penn. Notes give birth, marriage and death dates, and residence of living issue as far as can be found. Numbers in parenthesis following names in chart correspond to numbers in notes. The records show many soldiers, doctors, ministers and public officials among the McFarland men, few middle names in the earlier families and names were often duplicated where an older child in a large family had died in infancy.

Duncan and Daniel McFarland Sr. came to America from Ayrshire Scotland in 1718.
